

Fairhaven High School Summer Reading 2009

Good reading habits are the foundation of a successful high school career. The objectives of the English Department in requiring summer reading of all students are to strengthen reading skills, to enhance the English curriculum, and to cultivate reading for pleasure.

Students should keep notes on character, setting, theme, and plot. Assessment of your understanding of the book will take place in the fall.

Directions for GRADE 9

Grade 9 Honors-Read Both I Capture the Castle by Smith
The Alchemist by Paulo Coehlo

Grade 9-The Moon is Down by Steinbeck

Directions for GRADE 10

Grade 10 Honors-Read Both Warriors Don't Cry by Beal
Ellen Foster by Gibbons

Grade 10-Ellen Foster by Gibbons

Directions for GRADE 11

Grade 11 Honors-Read Both 1984 by Orwell
Rebecca by Du Maurier

Grade 11 Level 1-Choose One-
1984 by Orwell OR
Rebecca by Du Maurier

Grade 11 Level 2 Hole in My Life Gantos

Directions for Grade 12

Grade 12 Honors-Read Both The Kite Runner by Hosseini
The Color Purple by Walker

Grade 12 Level One-Choose One-
The Kite Runner by Hosseini OR
The Color Purple by Hosseini

Grade 12 Level 2 Double Helix by Nancy Werlin